Rita Konig Designed Residence for Manhattan House

I wanted to pop in to quickly post these amazing photos for a little Sunday morning inspiration for you all [that's right-you got two posts from this weekend. I was bored]. I could not be more enamored with this residence designed by everyone's fave Rita Konig (of Domino fame) for Manhattan House, an a landmark residential condo on the Upper East Side. It teeters on the perfect edge of feminine yet masculine, modern yet vintage, clean yet cluttered, casual yet crisp. Take a looksie...

Pretty, no? Now go enjoy the rest of your day, and I will see you here tomorrow for Monday Morning {P}inspirations!
