

March 23, 2011

Manhattan House And Blair Voltz Clarke Host Armory Show Cocktail Reception For Artists And VIP Armory Guests

Sue Mackenzie, director of investor relations, O'Connor Capital Partners; Interior Designer James Huniford; and Blair Clarke of Voltz Clarke

NEW YORK, NY — Manhattan House, the iconic, landmarked, Modernist condominium, located at 200 East 66th Street on the Upper East Side, together with Blair Voltz Clarke, hosted an evening cocktail reception on March 3 for artists and attendees of the Armory Show in James “Ford”

Huniford’s signature-designed residence at the building. Cocktails and hors d’oeuvres were served by Betel, an exotic yet modern Southeast Asian restaurant located at 51 Grove Street in the West Village.

The reception presented a blend of expressive design creativity and distinctive artwork by innovative artists including Karen Tompkins, Mark Boomershine, Lucy Soni, and other established and emerging contemporary artists from Voltz Clarke’s roster.

Debuted in fall 2010 and the location of the cocktail event, Ford’s signature design at Manhattan House is The Modern9 and a fresh take on the Classic 9. This floor-through residence features a Great Room framed by a museum-scale gallery wall with a separate living room and dining room along a 38-foot expanse of south-facing windows that overlook Manhattan House’s private gardens. The windowed kitchen features a breakfast room, and the master suite has a windowed sitting area and extensive closet space. This home has additional bedrooms and a library with wet bar and adjacent powder room.

For more information on Voltz Clarke, visit <http://www.voltzclarke.com/>. For more information on Manhattan House, which is located at 200 East 66th Street, visit www.manhattanhouse.com.