Manhattan House Photographs by Patrick McMullan UNVEILS SCULPTURE GARDEN

Manhattan House, a historic landmark and luxury residence, unveiled its garden's newest additions, sculptures by Hans Van de Bovenkamp on June 16, 2009. The event was hosted by O'Connor Capital Partners, the developer behind Manhattan House's recent renovation. Along with celebrating de Bovenkamp's sculptures Trinity and Red Gateway, O'Connor Capital Partners showed its appreciation for the history and art of the landsite by renovating and restoring the amenity spaces of the Manhattan House. Friends and artists enjoyed refreshments provided by Bulldog Gin while viewing the garden and enjoying delectable treats of truffles, pastries, and chocolate Chambord. 01 Anne Young and Kelly Mack, 02 Jerry O'Connor, 03 Manhattan House's private garden, 04 Jerry O'Connor, Anne Young, Brian Fallon, and Hans Van de Bovenkamp, 05 Brian Fallon, Lori Klipstein, and Thomas Quinn, 06 Nicole Tazzera, Meg Angelakos, Sue MacKenzie, and Melanie Warner sipping Bulldog Gin cocktails, 07 Richard Wallgren, 08 Atmosphere
